

For Students, Counselors and Agencies:

Domestic Violence Course

by Dennis Fitzpatrick

This monumental work of 940 slides, 48 edited videos in 28 classes was developed by Dennis Fitzpatrick over the last 12 years to help court mandated Domestic Violence offenders learn new skills.

Individuals: Some courts will permit a person to take a course online. We will supply you with the necessary documents to submit to the court for approval. (Some states do not approve of Domestic Violence online courses.) Our questions are not only “True/False” but are “thought” questions that require email correspondence between the student and one of our certified male and female counselors. The cost of our online course is $35 an hour for each hour required by the court. For example, an 8 hour course would cost $280 while a 2 hour course would cost only $70.

Agencies: A good PowerPoint projector (3,000 lumens) costs less than $280. A large screen TV costs $1,000 or more. Also, the projector is not limited in screen size like a TV. Try the first few classes at no charge.

Students only retain 10% of material from lectures but 65% from visuals (Dept. of Labor Study). Finally an effective visual package is available. It contains the keys to change with 40 Self-Evaluation Quizzes and Drills. Fitzpatrick also holds workshops and trains counselors.

AGENCY ADVANTAGES

There are 20 Advantages of the PPT class. Here are the main ones:

- 65% retention rate by visual and oral means over 10% oral only presentations. (OSHA US Dept. of Labor Outreach Training Study, 1996)
- 81% (visuals and kinesthetics) are not being effectively taught, only orals.
- Images are processed 60,000 times faster than text (Stohlman, 2009, 2010)
- Students like visuals better: 74% approval went to 98% (Coohill, Penn State, 2010). Watching videos is considered fun, sadly, reading is not today. Approximately 20% of Domestic Violence clients are reading impaired.
- Counselors are teaching uniform approaches in all classes
- It takes 11 repetitions to learn a new idea. Review of skills is organized.
- No drills=No skills. 40 Drills and Self Evaluation Quizzes featured.
- Printed books not used. Attention should be on the screen and the counselors. Clients who want copies can download them for free or counselors can print out requested drills, quizzes or main slides from the free 188 page online PDF.

COUNSELOR ADVANTAGES

- No hunting for Videos or DVDs, then cueing them. Just push a button. The PowerPoint presentation features 28 classes with 48 Videos and 940 slides.
- No hunting for follow up video questions.
- No hunting for Drills or a Quiz on Jealousy, for example.
- Can you remember more than 5 provocative beliefs about Domestic Violence? There are at least 18.
- Can you remember which skills you reviewed lately and which you did not review? How long has it been since you reviewed Fair Fight Negotiation?
- Incorporate your favorite materials in the slides. Ask for a quote.

- Introverts participate equally with extroverts due to drill rotation.
- 5 Discussion Topics included for each class.
- A co-counselor page is provided so two counselors can divide the work.
- There is a 130 page free Slide Guide which contains comments on how the author, Dennis Fitzpatrick, teaches each slide.
- There is also a free Log available which lists the 28 classes with their videos, special features, self-evaluation Quizzes and other material.
- PowerPoint teaches more skills and material effortlessly in half the time.
